

Academic Federation Fall 2004 Newsletter

Mark your calendar!

The Academic Federation is having a Welcome Reception in the Voorhies Courtyard on Thursday, September 30th, 4-6 pm.

The event is a chance to meet other members of the Academic Federation and to get information about the Federation. Chancellor Larry Vanderhoef, Vice Provost for Academic Personnel Barbara Horwitz and the Academic Federation Executive Council will be in attendance. Light refreshments will be served.

Meyer Award Ceremony

The Meyer Award Ceremony will be held on 17 November, from 6-8 in the AGR Room of the Buehler Alumni and Visitors' Center. This year's recipient is Frank G. Zalom, Specialist in Cooperative Extension in the Department of Etymology.

Invitations will be sent in early October.

Recipients of the Academic Federation's Teaching and Research Awards for 2004

William Reisen, who has an international reputation for his work on mosquitoes and disease, won the Academic Federation Award for Excellence in Research. He is a researcher in the UC Davis Center for Vectorborne Diseases and heads the Bakersfield field station.

Dorothy Fraser, coordinator of the UC Davis Family Nurse Practitioner/Physician Assistant Program's Fresno Teaching Center, and Jared Haynes, of the University Writing Program, shared the Academic Federation Award for Excellence in Teaching.

The recipients were honored by the Chancellor and Federation leadership at a reception at the Buehler Alumni and Visitors Center on 20 May.
